7. UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

A. Debrief on “Diversity, Equity & Inclusion” Workshop:

Richard LeBoriosis updated the Council with the first workshop on Diversity, Equity and Inclusion held in the East Windsor Town Hall. The workshop was well accepted and every participant found it to be incredibly interesting. The feedback was so positive that the Diversity Council was able to secure more funding from the Town to offer two-part series. The contracts have been signed and they are awaiting to establish the dates.

Ana Rivera expressed her thoughts that everybody was engaged and people had many questions and were open to the forum; and, that it was absolutely impressive.

B. Update: Witness Stone Project

Richard LeBoriosis: We could continue our conversation with the Historical Society and start including the Middle School.

Gabriella Resto: It is absolutely a great idea as this issue needs to be a learning aspect in the Middle School.

Anna Rivera: It will be great as collaborations like this must include all ages. The demographic data illustrated that the diversity initiatives were skewed towards older age population rather than all age groups especially the youth.

C. Update: East Windsor Greater Together Grant

Richard LeBoriosis: In keeping with that we need to develop a calendar of celebrations and topics and integrate them into the master calendar and file it with the Town Clerk.

D. Update: Facebook

Jonathan Wyse: We could post the recording of the Diversity Equity and Inclusion on our Facebook.
