Albert Grant. Minutes approved.

V. NEW BUSINESS

Discussion regarding an email was received from the CT Farmland Trust's, Kathleen Doherty, with information about the Regional Conservation Partnership Program, a grant opportunity partnering with diverse groups to preserve farmland. It was stated that their statewide mapping project found that some of the best farmland in the state is located in East Windsor. Albert Grant has called Kathleen Doherty and is waiting to hear back.

VI. OLD BUSINESS

1. Agenda item #1 in old business regarding reviewing criteria and scoring for farmland. Fran Neill moved and Albert Grant 2nd to table. Motion approved.

2. Open Space Fund

The need to increase the fund will be included in the outreach article.

2. Public Outreach Literature

Considerable time was spent on fine tuning the outreach article and adding edits suggested by Selectman Alan Baker and Commission members. A motion to approve the final version was made by Albert Grant and 2nd Fran Neill. The motion was approved. Discussion entailed ways to disperse the letter and put into a more readable friendly format. Final version attached.
