Such expense may be collected by the Town in a civil action against any one or more of the above-named responsible parties.

1. The number of Blight & Property Maintenance Code Violation investigations conducted by the Town;
2. Any civil penalties/fines, special assessments, liens or imposed by the Town; and
3. Any remedial actions completed by the Town
Let’s discuss this section further. I don’t know that it is entirely worth it.

A) It can be dangerous to enter private property

B) It will be requested by each and every neighbor – not sure if the town wants to be in the landscape business

C) This is a very political issue

D) If you decide to keep this section we will need to tweak to include subsections requiring a hearing prior and making it clear that the Town has no statutory authority to enter into any dwelling or other building.
