Loos moved/Balch seconded/
The Commission cited the low attendance at the Public Hearing despite publication of the Hearing. Discussion continued regarding alternative options to reach the public.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION:

Lynn Stanley: Mrs. Stanley noted communication has always been an issue with regard to Town activities. She suggested if the Charter Revision Commission Meetings could be held at Town Hall the meetings could be videotaped and could be available for those not able to attend personally.

Andy Hoffman: Selectman Hoffman reported he’s disappointed in the adversarial attitude of people; he gave credit to members of the public who consistently attend Selectmen’s Meetings. He agreed with the need to find ways to motivate people to participate; he hoped the Charter revisions can include ways to give the public more influence.

Selectman Hoffman felt there were misconceptions regarding the Board of Selectmen’s ability to have final approval of the budget prior to going to referendum. He questioned how the Charter addressed that issue?

Selectman Hoffman suggested he would like to see residents have the ability to vote on line items which reflect the larger ticket items presented in the annual budget rather than voting on one all-encompassing budget. He cited examples of towns which allow that process.

Lynn Stanley: Mrs. Stanley agreed with the prevalence of the adversarial attitude. She suggested she would like to see the Charter support a Town Administrator, who would report to the Board of Selectmen, to guide the municipal processes, and a Chief Financial Officer to assist with the budgetary process and grant acquisition. Discussion continued regarding the need to hire an Economic Development professional to promote the Town’s commercial properties which would increase revenue.

NEW BUSINESS/A. Discussion of recent (6/21) town meeting results and process:

The recent approval at Town Meeting of $837,000 in supplemental appropriations was discussed. Selectman Hoffman cited concern for the lack of funding for the South Road sewer replacement project. The Commission discussed the current approval process vs. revising the Charter to include an interim step to promote more indepth review of potential appropriations.

MOTION: To reduce to writing the need to change the requirement in the Charter to 75 signatures for a referendum.
