

Hay!

It's time for Parks and Recreation's Annual Scarecrow Contest!

This year's theme is: Olympics!

Choose your season, choose your event, and go for the gold with your creativity! This contest is open to individuals, families, groups, organizations, and businesses.

How do I enter?

First, call Parks and Rec at (860) 627-6662 to register your scarecrow idea, then set it up in front of Town Hall at 11 Rye Street, Broad Brook between October 15th & 18th.

What are the rules?

Your scarecrow display must be:

- secured to the ground with only 2x4s
- able to withstand wind and weather, and
- clearly labeled with your name and theme.

Voting will take place via the East Windsor Parks and Recreation Facebook page starting October 20th. The three scarecrows with the most votes will win a prize!

